

The Boston Aquarium Society presents our...

Annual Auction

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 7, 2004

Rare Fish • Equipment • Aquatic Plants

Things to know...

- Item registration begins at 10:30 AM, bidding starts at 12:00 PM.
- 60/40 split in favor of vendor. Maximum of 15 lots per person.
- Save time, get your form now... Fill your Vendor Registration Form out before attending the event!
- Support the Boston Aquarium Society! Download and print a PDF version of our flyer and bring it to your local fish store for display. Or, give a copy to a friend who might be interested in attending.

Founded in 1916,
The Boston
Aquarium Society
has helped aquarists
of all levels increase their knowledge and appreciation of aquatics.

Where is it?

It is at the Dedham Veterans of Foreign wars, USS Jacobs Post 2017, 87 Eastern Avenue, Dedham, MA.

How do I get there?

From the MA Turnpike take Route 128/85 east to Exit #15A/Route 1 Dedham. Proceed north to the intersection at Eastern Avenue (4th light), you will see a Staples on the corner. Take a sharp right onto Eastern Avenue to #87 (approx. 1/4 mile).

Frm the East (South Shore, etc.) take Route 128/95 west to exit #15/Route 1 Dedham. Proceed north to the intersection at Eastern Avenue (4th light), you will see a Staples on the corner. Take a sharp right onto Eastern Avenue to #87, approximately 1/4 mile.

Our event is an open house.

Everyone is invited to join in on the fishy fun and fellowship. We will be having door prizes, drawing for a complete aquarium set-up, vendors and refreshments. Do drop in, the auction should last until 5:00 PM.

Did you miss our event/open house?

Meetings are free and open to everyone. They are held on the 3rd Monday of every month at The New England Aquarium's Exploration Center on Central Wharf in Boston, MA.

Boston Aquarium Society • www.bostonaquariumsociety.org

